Questions from the Public relating to items on this agenda (limited to 10 minutes)

1. To discuss and consider the Boardability proposal to run youth sessions throughout the summer holidays.

Cllr Jones joined the meeting at 6.39pm

The Clerk explained the proposal which had been received from the Boardability group, to run 10 sessions over the Summer holidays, this would include Mountainboarding, Seated boarding, Skateboarding, surf skating, long board skate, Dirt scooters, Street scooters as well as Roller skating, the proposal which would cost £2500 was discussed.

Proposed by CG seconded by LR agreed by all

2. To agree funding the summer sessions from the Youth Participatory Budget

It was suggested that since the idea for skateboarding sessions had been included in the participatory budgeting platform this funding for these sessions could come from the £5000 PB youth pot set aside for such activities.

Proposed by LR seconded by CG agreed by all

Meeting closed at 6.49pm
